

FTG presents

The fabulous three for 2010

Season April 23—May 2
George Jenkins Theatre

Aren't we all a little mad?

Dave Wearne will direct

One flew over THE Cuckoo's nest

By Dale Wasserman From the novel by Ken Kesey By arrangement with Dominic

The story revolves around an asylum for the insane which accommodates many people, all of them different, living in their complex little worlds. A large Indian chief narrates the story, telling us about the conflicts between the inmates themselves; a stern head nurse named Ratched, and the new arrival McMurphy. The chief feigns deafness to fight against the system and in time opens up to McMurphy, who in turn befriends the suffering Indian. A confronting story with just enough humour to soften the tragic finale.

A day in a real estate office can be very interesting...

Roy Thompson will direct his own play..
Based on his experience in real estate..

Season July 16— 25
George Jenkins Theatre

Young Turks

Set in the whirling world of an inner Sydney real estate office this true-to-life tale puts the spotlight on four salesmen. Jeff was once the gun salesman, but now the well-groomed 'Young Turks,' Derek, Garth and Barry are leaving him far behind. One of them is having an affair with Jeff's wife, another is caught in a compromising situation in one of the company's Home Units; and one has lied to a client, hurting the reputation of the company. Confidence, camaraderie and cunning, seethe and erupt in this entertaining look at real estate wheeling and dealing ..and Jeff's revenge!

Bookings for shows at George Jenkins Theatre—03 9905 1111

What would you do if you found a briefcase stuffed with money?

Rob Davies will direct

Funny Money

A comedy by RAY COONEY

By arrangement with Dominic

"... a mechanical masterpiece of manufactured mirth " Spectator
" Farce-lovers are in for two and half hours of inspired, demented bliss" Sunday Times

Season Nov. 19—Dec.5
(two matinee performances)
Mt.Eliza Community Centre
Bookings 1300 665 377

